

The Department of Community, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs, in partnership with ICTR, presents a conference on

Shaping the future of charity reporting in the UK and Ireland

VENUE: Main Conference Hall, Dublin Castle, Dublin 8

DATE: Tuesday 12th January 2010

8.30 - 9.00 Registration / Tea / coffee

9.00 - 9.20 Official opening, and address by John Curran, TD, Minister of State with responsibility for charities regulation.

9.20 – 10.00 The UK Charities SORP: what is it, how is it developed and how might it change? – Nigel Davies, Charity Commission for England and Wales

10.00 – 11.00 Charity accounting and reporting: taking stock and future reform - Professor Noel Hyndman, Dr Ciaran Connolly, and Danielle McMahon, Queen's University, Belfast

11.00 - 11.15 Refreshment break

11.15 - 11.45 The Future of UK GAAP and Charities – Ian Mackintosh, Chairman, Accounting Standards Board

11.45 - 12.10 The Scottish regulatory perspective - Laura Anderson, Office of the Scottish Charities Regulator

12.10 - 12.45 Irish charities' perspective - Sheila Nordon, ICTR

12.45 - 1.30 Panel Q & A session

Buffet lunch

The event will be chaired by an official from the Department of Community, Rural, and Gaeltacht Affairs (TBC)

